

CHARLSIE “CJ” BURNETT

Junior Black Belt

Karate Five Junior Black Belt, Charlsie “CJ” Burnett, is part of the Karate Five (K-5) leadership team and a regular face in the K-5 dojo since she was very young. CJ, as she is called by family and friends, has proven her commitment to the arts. Over the years, she has evolved into a reliable young woman who is an asset to the dojo and has shown her willingness to work hard to learn the arts disciplines and cross training and has tournament awards to prove her merit. She is loyal, hardworking and committed to the arts. K-5 Dojo can count on her attendance, positive attitude and moral compass which exemplify the qualities of leadership we desire for Karate Five Dojo.